

Life Begin Again

Afro Celt Sound System

This is the day and the hour
The time when the changing begins
The land and the sky fall quite
Silence moves over the land

Ahh, Ahh, Woa, Woa
Ahh, Ahh, Ahh, Ahh

The heat of winter still burning
The heart still beating within
Her song echoes a calling
For life to begin again

Ohh, ohh, ohh, ohh

This is the day and the hour
The time when the changing begins
The land and sky fallen silent
Quiet moves o'er the plain
Quiet moves o'er the plain

The silence moves over the plain

The land and the sky are quiet
The heart is beating within
Her song echoes a calling
For life to begin again
For life to begin again
