

Found And Lost

After Midnight Project

Lie awake
Lets take control of this life
Just you and I
Forever takes it's time
So what does this mean?
I wrote this into my life
Now it's time that I play my role.

Something left me
and pacified me
So I'll just need to pass the time
As I awoke the night grew older
And I sat there waiting to hold you again.

We're awake when take control of this life
Like when we used to Those days grew old
Let's let time take it's toll
I wrote this into my life
Now it's time that I play my role.

and pacified me
So I'll just need to pass the time
As I awoke the night grew older
And I sat there waiting to hold you again.

Yeahhhhh

and pacified me
So I'll just need to pass the time
As I awoke the night grew older
And I sat there waiting to hold you again.

As I awoke the night grew older
And I sat there waiting to hold you again.
