

Keep My Feet On The Ground

After Midnight Project

She fell from the sky, an angel of mine
She told me I kept her alive

She'd tell me I'm perfect
She'd tell me that we fit together like a puzzle

I'd lost myself, I've been taken by the storm
I kill for her, but she doesn't even know

She lost the sunlight in her eyes, she told me I'm the reason why

She screams without a sound, nothing but silence all around
I turn my head to walk away, she just lays there on the ground

I'd lost myself, I've been taken by the storm
I kill for her, but she doesn't even know
I've heard it all, I've heard it all before
I lost myself, and she doesn't even know
