

Dark Side Of Mind

Afterworld

Waiting for the sunset, hiding from the light, that`s the way I survive here.
Painful memories, coming to my mind, soon I`m thinking nothing more than fear,
again...Dark side of mind!
Darkness now surrounds me, it`s peaceful everywhere, time to ma ke your nightmares come true.
Alone without hope, stranger with no face, there it is, a targe t to be doomed,
again...Dark side of mind!
Falling out of my dreams, suffering every day
Hearing the voices of pain, finding the right way
Feeling the rage deep inside, oh-what should i say?
Keeping those thoughts in my mind, can someone delay-
the dark side of mind
My mind keeps growing stronger, I don`t know what is real
The air is getting warmer, I`ll have to take the deal Tonight I`m making my move, the fear goes just too deep
I shouldn`t follow the evil, but I am just too weak Falling too far, suffering every day
Hearing too much, finding the right way
Feeling nothing, what should I say
Keeping those thoughts in my mind, can someone delay-
The dark side of mind
