

Hard as Fuck

Against All Authority

One day I decided to pray
I kneeled down & looked to the sky
I asked God why is life so hard
He turned his back & I started to cry
You turn your back on me
So I turn my back on you
Fuck your system and fuck you too
You tell me to follow your rules
Well how the fuck do you expect me to obey them
When you can't even follow them yourself
You're just trying to keep me down
