

Lifestyle of Rebellion

Against All Authority

I'm a rat in a maze, I'm headed in the wrong the direction if societies the cure, well then I'm the infection when I was younger I tried hard to find a place within it's structure, but the more that I tried, the more I fuckin' suffered its so fuckin' hard to live this life my gun is fuckin' loaded and I'm beginning to see the light. it's so fuckin hard to live this life. I knew all along that it was wrong, when you told me it was right . all these fuckin' rules and regulations hold me down I open up my mouth to scream, but no one hears a sound. they're too busy buying up everything that's been selling, that's why I chose to live a fuckin' lifestyle of rebellion.
