

Sounds of the Underground

Against All Authority

We're all here we're all the same fighting each other nothing's to gain open your eyes don't play their game open your mouth but do not close your eyes fight the system not each other they control your lives why are we so busy fighting each other when we should be fighting the system that fucks up and holds us down with the shackles that bound there's a new sound comin down from the underground a sound called unity if we stand together we'll never be torn apart by hatred we've gotta stop the violence in our scene and focus our hate on the state till they hear our screams
