

Borne On the FM Waves of the Heart

Against Me!

No (no), it's not what we meant to say (it's not what we meant to say

We don't really love each other

What happens when the summer's over?

(How long before distance becomes a chore?)

I'm approaching with great (great) trepidation

I hope you'll understand

Before you speak (before you speak)

Think about what you're trying to say (think about what you're trying to say)

Who else is there to blame for miscommunication?

You're getting caught up in the excitement

(You making promises you can't keep)

You need to leave all your options open

Too much momentum

This room feels like it's going to explode

Too many angles

Too many factors to cover

Waiting for signal

You're searching for a network

You have to fight to stay in control of the situation

Anxiety, anxiety, you give me no mercy

Grind my teeth smooth and flat in my sleep

We took some pills to calm us down

(We needed help to come back up)

Just trying to stay in control of the situation

Too much momentum

This room feels like it's going to explode

Too many angles

Too many factors to cover

Waiting for signal

You're searching for a network

You have to fight to stay in control of the situation

And we fall apart so easily

Too much momentum

This room feels like it's going to explode

Too many angles

Too many factors to cover

Waiting for signal

You're searching for a network

You have to fight to stay in control

You have to fight to stay in control

No, you don't have to fight to stay in control of the situation
