

Norse Truth

Against Me!

Tits out for the boys
Hard cocks
Hard cunts
Line 'em up

Walking on broken glass while holding my breath
I wouldn't dare step on a single crack
Dig up your bones hardly graves and not homes
If you're looking for revenge, well, here's a fucking pound of flesh
Just because I can intellectualize, it doesn't mean I feel it in my chest
Just because I can taste it, doesn't mean I sink my teeth into it
Always dogs running always dogs they just grinding down axes
To the last cigarette

All the places that we never went
All the times we never had
Want 'em back now, want 'em all back
I wanted you to be more real than all the others
Wanted all of us to be more real than all of the rest
All the places that we never went
All the times we never had
Want 'em back now, want 'em all back
I wanted you to be more real than all the others
Wanted all of us to be more real than all of the rest
But it wasn't

C'mon, shape shift with me
What have you got to lose?
Fuck it

Well there's a killer on the loose, and some to christ, fuck or rape me
Unwashed and unclean, these statements are untrue to me
We used to be cocaine and Xanax, now kisses her with her lipstick
There once was love, there now is nothing
The easiest way to untangle a knot
Just forget I was here, cut me out of your heart
Your body's not a stranger to me, how can I look you in the eyes
When I have known you so very intimately?

New drawers for new secrets, new without's to sleep with
I practice detachment to preform numbness as art
You're free to do nothing, go ahead and rot
Menthol crush you have faded from me

All the places that we never went
All the times we never had
Want 'em back now, want 'em all back
I wanted you to be more real than all the others
Wanted all of us to be more real than all of the rest
All the places that we never went
All the times we never had
Want 'em back now, want 'em all back
I wanted you to be more real than all the others
Wanted all of us to be more real than all of the rest
But it wasn't

Always starts with a gal or guy at a bar

And ends in a broken heart
To the last cock you suck, to the last cunt you fuck
I'm forever your girl
Please, please, please, say that you love me

All the places that we never went
All the times we never had
Want 'em back now, want 'em all back
I wanted you to be more real than all the others
Wanted all of us to be more real than all of the rest
All the places that we never went
All the times we never had
Want 'em back now, want 'em all back
I wanted you to be more real than all the others
Wanted all of us to be more real than all of the rest
But it wasn't
