

I Can't Stand

Agathocles

I can't stand the hatred, the hatred in me, but still it remains there, it's a part of me,

I can't stand the pessimism, the pessimism in me, but still it remains there, a little part of me,

I can't stand the apathy, the apathy living in me,
but still it remains there, it's a part of me,

I can't stand the negativism, which is living in me, but it's all a part of me, I am fucking sorry!!!
