

Raw War

Agathocles

Hey my little friend, it is all up to you
To break down the group-pressure, which is forcing you
Life is a raw war that you have to fight
But I believe in you because you're one of a kind
Saying no to them is the power that's in you
The strength that I respect, the force that hides in you
Life is a raw war that you have to fight
But I believe in you because you're one of a kind
The pressure that you fight, yes, those arseholes with their mi ght

You can resist them all, yes, you can bring them down
