

Where It Belongs

Agathocles

Start your zine and start it now start your label, you know why set up gigs, underground wise just do something, DIY

The scene has to be kept where it belongs socially aware, active and strong reject the worthless music business deceiving, greedy, it ain't worth a piss

Business men sucking you dry promises, lies in disguise for their profit, they will always smile punch that face, business is vile
