

God, Kings and Fools

Age of Artemis

God's and kings eyes
Set the world on fire
Flames are reaching us
Burning down humankind

Fools and queens desired
To defeat the time
Hunger for the power
Bringing down humankind

(Lost in the darkness)
Torture and greed
(Pain and disorder)
Envy all around
(Lost in the shadows)
Blood and disease
(Death all around)

You might say I'm losing my mind
But only the strong one survives
If you don't believe in these lines
You'll always be one step behind

(Lost in the darkness)
Torture and greed
(Pain and disorder)
Envy all around
(Lost in the shadows)
Blood and disease
(Death all around)

Everything you want seems to go wrong
Every dream is gone
Every man will die because
Only the strong one survives

The stronger will survive!

God's and kings eyes
Set the world on fire
Flames are reaching us
Burning down humankind

(Lost in the darkness)
Torture and greed
(Pain and disorder)
Envy all around
(Lost in the shadows)
Blood and disease
(Death all around)

Everything you want seems to go wrong
Every dream is gone
Every man will die because
Only the strong one survives

The stronger will survive!

Find your strength in the struggle
Face up your fears
And you will feel better
Don't be ashamed of who you are
Doesn't matter what they say

Find your way out from the shadow
Face up your life
And you will feel stronger
Don't be ashamed of believing
Doesn't matter what they say

The sun dies every day
To rise up again from the cold dark night
Don't be afraid
To rise up again from this cold nightmare

Be yourself raise your head up
(No matter what they do)
Do not give in cause
(You're beautiful this way)

Of all the hard times you've been through
Just leave it in the past
And you will see
What lies behind a scar...

Find your way out from the shadow
Face up your life
And you will feel stronger
Don't be ashamed of believing
Doesn't matter what they say

The sun dies every day
To rise up again from the cold dark night
Don't be afraid
To rise up again from this cold nightmare

Be yourself raise your head up
(No matter what they do)
Time is a healer
(And you have done your time)

Of all the hard times you've been through
Just leave it in the past
And you will see
What lies behind a scar

God's and king's eyes
Set the world on fire
Flames are reaching us
Burning down humankind

(Lost in the darkness)
Torture and greed
(Pain and disorder)
Envy all around
(Lost in the shadows)
Blood and disease
(Death all around)

Everything you want seems to go wrong

Every dream is gone
Every man will die because
Only the strong one survives

The stronger will survive

The strong ones survives
