

Till the End

Age of Artemis

There's no way to hide yourself in this world
Time is running out so be prepared
No peace, destruction all around
Just rage inside our heart

There are no rules that can't be broken
Love, I wonder when we'll feel for real
If god could see what's going on
How lost will feel here
Are you really there?

Go find your destiny
There are no answer here
Bring back reality
Face up your fate

Life's always the same, just wait till the end
Don't lose yourself, believe what I say

Face up your fate

There's no way to hide yourself in this world
Time is running out so be prepared
If god could see what's going on
How lost will feel here
Are you really there?
(Really there?)
