

...So Strange

Agent Orange

i've heard that voice before somehow, i can't imagine it speaks words without knowing what they mean i've seen that face before somewhere, i can't remember it seems as if it happened in a dream i laughed and now you know that some things never change i laughed again because to me you seem

i know i never should expect to finish something i know will never be complete i feel as if i'm lost again - i'm not, i'm only dreaming in a world where sound and silence seem to meet i block out all the noise a silent song remains i know it's only music, but it sounds

how does it feel to speak the words and sing the song?
