

Enslaved

Agent Steel

They pray to the universe
To end all their misery
Caused by their ignorance
They pray to those who would be king

To God's we gave to men
To God's who never were Created by our council to divert
Their minds while we remain on high

Demanding their shame
All seeing eye fathers of hate

Confused in a state of fear
A panicked mind, an endless tear
Suffer for our chosen children
Suffer for their pound of flesh

The lie king of king
The lie crucified
A paper God attached to strings
Dances to the songs we sing on high

Demanding their shame
All seeing eye won't look away

We're here to remind you
You are enslaved
You're chained to your fear
You are enslaved

Though freedom surrounds you
You stay our slave
And we stay right here

As long as you follow the path you've been given
We'll reap the harvest of pain we have sown
Don't open your minds, don't ever ask questions
We'll gladly play games we have already won

Abused into servitude
You're weakened by your faithfulness
Cover as you want to do
Believe the lie you think the best

And die the death you've been prescribed
A victim by design you writhe and supplicate
Question not and seal your fate

The eye 'tis in your mind
All seeing eye never goes blind

We're here to remind you
You are enslaved
You're chained to your fear
You are enslaved

Though freedom surrounds you
You stay our slave
You are enslaved

We're here to remind you
You are enslaved

Though freedom surrounds you
