

Trust

Agnostic Front

Deceived by your control
Innocence betrayed as your mind has been Forced to evolve in order to Hide behind your pain.

Protect yourself from harm
When authority's ignored and you
Have found that trust is lost
And gone and who will be
The strength we're looking for.

Can't trust them it's all lies
How they dehumanize.

Throw your rules in my face
No one respects your ways
Ignorance is no excuse
As it all comes back to you
Too much too little too late
Some things remain the same.
