

Kind Der Nacht

Agonoize

I promise you, it is breathtaking to be a child of the night.

She will be there for you, protect you,
in the womb of darkness will disappear, all your worries and troubles.

You will feel no more fear, or sadness.

When all else is asleep,
awakens the demon inside you.

When all else is asleep,
Are you going from human to animal.

Only when the shadows swallow the light, and sinks into this world in the dark Do you feel free under cover of night, the obsession of a higher power.

Child of the Night
Child of the Night
Cruel is the only life
Child of the Night
The night is black as your soul.

When all else is asleep,
your mind is immersed in darkness
When all else is asleep,
returns it, the loneliness Who does not understand who sees you already as a freak of evolution.
Restless until the morning comes, a dark star on the horizon.

In the womb of darkness will disappear, all your worries and concerns,
you will feel no more fear, or sadness

Child of the Night
Cruel is the only life
Child of the Night
The night is black as your soul
Child of the Night
Child of the Night
When all else is asleep
When all else is asleep
