

The Holy Flame

Agonoize

You brought a curse on the knowledge of nature
Hunt people down for their spiritual ways
You call them 'witch' when you fear turns to hatred
You're afraid of what you don't understand
Condemn them to death for no reason, just mistrust
You holy man with no one to do
You've been judged by the word of a stranger
The holy flame will claim their soul

Fear the blasphemy and sins against God. You will burn in hell for all eternity!
Nice, just you hate peace, with that God you worship!

Burn for heaven
Burn down to hell

You brought a curse on the knowledge of nature
Hunt people down for their spiritual ways
You call them 'witch' when you fear turns to hatred
You're afraid of what you don't understand

The hand of God reached up for your soul
It's time to confess your sins!

Burn for heaven
Burn down to hell
