

I sleep in pearly white sheets
My shirt is dirty

Stains of milk and longing
Colour my doll lovely

You don't really know me
I've watched you all morning
Every word you're saying
This girl does not understand

I've stretched in early sunlight
My urge is flirting
Trails of milk and honey
Colour my floors lovely

You don't really know me
I've watched you all morning
Every word you're saying
This girl does not understand

Du du...
Du du...

You don't really know me
You read the news every day
I watch every morning
Not hearing one word you say
