

The Argument

Aidan Hawken

Like I heard that
Like I heard that
Place your heart with anyone
Place your heart with anyone
Don't fear God or love
Don't fear God or love
And you can say it's all my fault baby
And you can say it's all my fault baby

Taste the blood that's in your mouth
Take turns screaming back and forth
And there's nothing we can do
It's the last word
That's how the argument goes
That's how the argument goes

Anger is a sure fire
And it burns through our lives
Are you more than every one
Are you more than every one
Do you fear god and love
Do you fear god and love
And you can say it's all my fault baby
And you can say it's all my fault baby

Taste the blood that's in my mouth
Take turns screaming back and forth
And there's nothing we can do
It's the last word
That' how the argument goes
