

Fighting Against Your Lungs

Aidan Knight

Oh my love
You are fighting against your lungs
And I against my eyelids
To separate the time I spent awake

Oh my god
We are all fighting against the threads
By the very fabric
Celebrate the time pent today

I met you at the border-cross
And gave up kisses like a winter's frost
Long shoulder in your over coat
I've seen your eyes through a mouth of smoke

I met you at the border-cross
And gave up kisses like a winter's frost
Long shoulder in your over coat
I've seen your eyes through a mouth of smoke
