

Poacher's Timing

Aiden Grimshaw

Cold, lonely water
I wait, wait for you
Caught in this,
Fast falling
Everthing I had I've broken now
Oh how I feel unwell
Parts of me I can't sell
Blow away

Throw me a line
Give me some rope which I can hang with
Give me a sign
You been stole with the poachers time
Give me a line
Give me some rope which I can hang with
Give me a sign
You've been stole with the poachers time

Lost and now I'm losing
I try to stop but I'm confusing time
I wonder why, I wonder why, I wonder why, I wonder why, I wonder why
Lost and now I'm losing
I try to stop but I'm confusing time

Take my eyes
You can shut up my ears
My heart is blind
There's a thousand fears behind your lies
The dark can't hide

Cold, lonely water
I'll wait

So throw me a line
Give me some rope which I can hang with
Give me a sign
You've been stole with the poachers time

Throw me a line
Give me some rope which I can hang with
Give me a sign
You've been stole with the poachers time

Cold, lonely water
I wait, wait for you
Cold, lonely water
I wait, I wait, I wait
