

I'm Not Your Girlfriend

Allen, Aimee

You fuck me then you leave
You sweat upon my sheets and then you run
But I'm not done
You tell me I'm the one
Just long enough to come
You think I'm dumb

I loose you everyday
And I know I'm getting played
But I'm having fun
It's so ??

I'm not your girlfriend
I don't have to come
I don't want to need you
I am not your girlfriend
You don't have to come
I don't want to need you
I just want tonight

I fuck you then I leave
You didn't question me before I run
You come undone
I tell you you're the one
Just long enough to come
You think I'm dumb
I loose you every day
And you know you're getting played
But you're having fun
It's so ??

I'm not your girlfriend
I don't have to come
I don't want to need you
I am not your girlfriend
You don't have to come
I don't want to need you
I just want tonight

When I'm done
I'll let you know
I want you to come and go
When I'm done
I let you know
I want you to come and go

I don't want your number
I don't want your last name
I don't want to meet your mother
The less is better or the same
Just hit and run don't be gun shy
Just be ?? say goodbye
I'll be okay I'll be alright
I just want you for tonight

I'm not your girlfriend
I don't have to come

I don't want to need you
You don't have to come
I don't want to need you
I just want tonight
