Charmer

Aimee Mann

When you're a charmer the apples fall and you're quite the little collector you got 'em all

When you're a charmer people respond they can't see the hidden agenda you got going on

But when you're weak it's the Holy Grail you're two for one, it's a fire sale and that's a wall that you cannot scale so you're forced to burrow under

When you're a charmer the world applauds they don't know that secretly charmers feel like they're frauds

When you're a charmer you hate yourself a victim of sideshow hypnosis like everyone else and then your thinking goes black and white and you're all hunger and appetite this is a battle you cannot fight no, you only can surrender no, you only can surrender
