

A Blade In The Dark

Air Raid

Full moon is calling tonight
Bathing the forest in its light
Shining so bright

Strong winds blow through the trees
The ground is quaking as he moves
Into the mist

Ready to strike and leave his mark
Treason will be punished, he will attack

Can you see him when all is black
A figure so stark
He stands with a blade in the dark
...In the dark

Betrayed, the dead seek revenge
On the traitors walking still on earth
They'll meet their death

Look out, darkness is close
The shadow summoned to avenge
Stands up ahead

Ready to strike and leave his mark
Treason will be punished, he will attack

Can you see him when all is black
A figure so stark
He stands with a blade in the dark

Night brings retribution of souls tormented
The unholy axe takes vengeance

No sign of heaven, hell is near
There is no tomorrow for you

Ready to strike and leave his mark
Treason will be punished, he will attack
Can you see him when all is black
A figure so stark
He stands with a blade in the dark
...In the dark
