

Midnight Burner

Air Raid

When the clock strikes the hour man will hear the shout in the midst of the blackness he will step out

Midnight burner
ready to roll when the light is gone

Midnight burner
in darkness he rides with thundering might there will be no return

Burn

Between sunset and sunrise a creature is reborn being fed by the moonlight a soul forever torn

Midnight burner
ready to roll when the light is gone

Midnight burner
in darkness he rides with thundering might
there will be no return

Fire on the highway
fire in the land
everything's burning
by the flame in his hand

Repeat chorus (2x)
