

When the Sky Turns Red

Air Raid

This is a warning
damage is done
you tampered with fire
soon you'll be gone

Something is coming to take you away
you will try and fight
but I will just play

There is no way outta here
you will crumble
down in fear

your life hangs by a thread
be quick or be dead
there is danger ahead

fate lies not in your hand
there is danger ahead

Time is close now
darkness is here
your heart is pounding
you won't shed a tear

Feeling the anger
building inside
you think you can make it there's nowhere to hide

There is no way outta here
as the end is drawing near

The beast is approaching with fire in its eyes
all hope is lost
lost in your cries

Resistance is futile
there's no turning back you brought this upon you now it will attack

There is no way outta here
time has come to face your fear
