

Let's Stay Together Tonight

Air Supply

I Feel Your Hand In Mine
I Touch Your Skin
Your Heart Is Calling Out
You Want to Let Me In
Let Me In

Your Lips Are Silent Now
We're Not Alone
I Had To Tell You How Much
I'd Like To Take You Home
So I Can Make Love To You

I Believe In You So
And That There's Only One Moment To Live
When You're Here Next To Me
There's So Much More I Have To Give

When the Wind Blows, There's Nowhere Else You Can To Run
Lets Stay Together Tonight
I'm Waiting For You
All The Words That I Told You, Will Always Be True
Lets Stay Together Tonight
Whatever We Do

Why Must I Keep Pretending
I'm In Control
When I Can Feel Your Senses
Burning Through My Soul
Through My Soul

I Believe In You So
And There's Only One Moment To Live
There's So Much More I Have To Give
When the Wind Blows, There's Nowhere Else You Can To Run To
Lets Stay Together Tonight
I'm Waiting For You
All The Words That I Told You, Will Always Be True
Lets Stay Together Tonight
Whatever We Do

Hold Me Close, Don't Let Me Go
I Just Want You To Say That
I Need You
I Want You To Know, Know, Know, Know

When the Wind Blows, There's Nowhere Else You Can To Run
Lets Stay Together Tonight
I'm Waiting For You
All The Words That I Told You, Will Always Be True
Lets Stay Together Tonight
Whatever We Do

I Need You

When the Wind Blows, There's Nowhere Else You Can To Run
I'm Waiting For You
All The Words That I Told You, Will Always Be True
Whatever We Do

When the Wind Blows, There's Nowhere Else You Can To Run
I'm Waiting For You
