

Painless Vengeance

Airged L'amh

High over plains and mountains with riders by my side, too late now for the summons
Must pay a higher price

The stormy clouds I scatter, draw power from the Sun
A single star now shining above the clearing sky

Charging into the spiral mist fires of human flesh
It's too late for the rescue of my friend

In the cold nights of loneliness a lifeless broken shadow saw N uada in the coils of demon Rest in piece my hero king I burst in anger meet your equal Bal or wizard

So free the land from strangers, so free the land from foe
I circle precious shadow I see so far below

Farewell my friend in honor I will avenge your death
The solar power is with me until the end
