

Warp Spasm

Airged L'amh

Battle frenzy my body shakes the Earth , mists of poison spiral around me
As the dawn of battle rages on and on , the stench of death has filled the evening

Fearsome warriors ride in silence

Streng the great champion of Fir-Bolg stood firm as the armies of Nuada
Were slaughtered and butchered to death

I am determined to banish the evil's domain
Power, fierce and hatred are my only faithful friends

Battle frenzy the Earth my body shakes, restless spirits gather
around me
Feel the anguish of that long day never fades
For power and glory the harvest of bloodshed
