

Red Bikini

Akcent

Yesterday when I got back home
My girlfriend said my shirt had some lipstick on Started asking me where the hell I've been
And everything became such a very bad dream.

I'm very sorry, would you please forgive me ?
Nothing really happened, baby don't you leave me...!

And I will promise I will never ever drink Martini
And party all night long...
Never gonna bring you home some red bikini
Cause you're the one I love, o-o-o...

Someone left in the car for me
The smell of girl perfume and some lingerie
She's started asking me what's that little thing,
I said 'Baby, don't you worry cause it's not what you think.'

I'm very sorry, would you please forgive me ?
Nothing really happened, baby don't you leave me...!

And I will promise I will never ever drink Martini
And party all night long...
Never gonna bring you home some red bikini
Cause you're the one I love, o-o-o...

Don't know why you still keep on blaming me
Don't know why you still can not trust in me
I've been flirting, yes girl, I know it's true
But I'm still in love, I'm in love with you.

I apologize, would you please forgive me ?
Nothing happened, baby don't you leave me...!
Once again I'm telling you I'm sorry
Nothing really happened, baby don't you worry...

And I will promise I will never ever drink Martini
And party all night long...
Never gonna bring you home some red bikini
Cause you're the one I love, o-o-o...

And I will promise you...
No party all night long...
No party all night long,
Always be early home
Cause you're the one I love.
