

Akikaze No Uta

Akeboshi

I'm a bit more fickle than other people, and it drove you nuts
So you coldly took your hand away from mine
I doubt anything I say will make any difference now
You're tearing me down
You're tearing me down
Eventually the light of the sun dies, leaving loneliness and listlessness behind
Late at night, I realise I still haven't reached my destination
Rain
It keeps me calm It keeps me calm
It keeps me walking
'Cause I know you're never gonna stay

So long, eventually the rain comes
Yeah, today, once again, I'm left on my own
So long, the rain comes to this town
Yeah, today, once again, I'm left on my own in the same season

You ain't gonna stay

So long someday I will So long I keep walking
So long someday I will So long I keep walking

You ain't gonna stay
