My Foolish Heart

Al Jarreau

The night is like a lovely tune Beware, my foolish heart So white the ever-constant moon Take care, my foolish heart

There's a line between love and fascination It's hard to see on an evening such as this For they both give the very same sensation When you're lost in the magic of a kiss

Your lips are much too close to mine Beware, my foolish heart But should our eager lips combine Then let the fires start

For this time it isn't fascination Or a dream that will fade and fall apart It's love This time it's love, my foolish heart

There's a line between love and fascination It's hard to see on an evening such as this For they both give the very same sensation When you're lost in the magic of a kiss

Your lips are much too close to mine Beware, my foolish heart But should our eager lips combine Then let the fires start

For this time it isn't fascination Or a dream that will fade and fall apart It's love This time it's love, my foolish heart
