

Come Share The Wine

Al Martino

The streets were dark and the night was cold and yet I walk alone

I saw the lights of a cozy place with lanterns all aglow

Somebody cried, "Don't wait outside, come say, hello"

The people there, they were singing songs I knew when I was young

And from the jukebox I heard the sounds, I needed to recall

I sang along with every song, I knew them all

Come share the wine

No one is a stranger here, they're your friends and mine

Everyone's your brother, we're a long way from home

And we need each other, have no fear, you're welcome here

Come share the wine

It's so nice and warm in here, we're happy and kind

We can understand that you're a long way from home

But we have each other, have no fear, you'll like it here

It's not so easy to feel at home when home's so far away

When all the longing and all the wanting is for yesterday

You've made me find some peace of mind I'd like to stay

The world seems colder when you're a stranger from a foreign land

You need to feel that someone cares and that they understand

Many a tear would disappear if we joined hands

Come share the wine

No one is a stranger here, they're your friends and mine

Everyone's your brother, we're a long way from home

And we need each other, have no fear, you're welcome here

Come share the wine

It's so nice and warm in here, we're happy and kind

We can understand that you're a long way from home

But we have each other, have no fear, you'll like it here
