

Converted

Alabama 3

shoot me
with the real thing shoot me, me moth, me motha' now's the time for you to get right and repent

I've been converted
sit right there and get educated, sit right there I've been converted
peace, in the valley
I've been converted
peace, in the valley

You gotta ask yourself this question: can a man who has fought in the jungles with I.V. Lenin against the running bell kept the least of pigs sleepin and huntin so lonely that the rats would search back, be my redeemer ? an'gotta say well maybe yes, and maybe no, but I know that I gotta go somewhere, and that somewhere might as well be church

now's the time for you to get right and repent I've been converted

fourty days you been tried and tempted fourty nights you been out in the cold every phone line conversation's intercepted you can't reconnect 'cause the frequency is closed so many winds you been out of direction so many signs you ain't got nowhere to go, yeah cadillac has got it's headlights disconnected you're rollin' your wheels down the wrong side of the road can you see them now?

can you see the sisters swinging, yeah?
can you hear them now?
can you hear the brothers singing, yeah?

let's go back to church
let's go back to church
so damn long since we sung this song, let's go back to church
let's go back to church
let's go back to church
any day now, any way, any how, let's go back to church

'cause see,
you drink the wine but it, it tastes like water and ya broke the bread but it, it turned into stone the sacrament it lays scattered on the pavement and the covenants you kept they'd all been stolen under the soul you can see them now yeah, you can see them now you can see the sisters swinging, yeah I know it now yeah you can hear them now

hear the brothers singing yeah

its been so damn long since we sung this song
let's go back to church, yeah
