Sound And Color

Alabama Shakes

A new world hangs outside the window
Beautiful and strange
It must be falling away
I must be
Sound and color with me for my mind
And it should show you where to go when I need to speak

Sound and color With me in my mind Sound and color Try to keep yourself awake Sound and color This life ain't like a book Sound and color I wanna touch a human being Sound and color I want to go back to sleep Sound and color Ain't life just awfully strange Sound and color You wish you never gave it all away Sound and color The more the feeling Sound and color Life is Sound and color Love is Sound and color Love is Sound and color Sound and color Sound and color
