Hometown Honeymoon

Alabama

Hey baby, won't you take my hand
And make me a happy man?
I ain't rich but I found my fortune in you
Two jobs on the night time shift
I'm still left with an empty fist
But my heart is full and my love is true

We can still get married
In the style of our friends and family
Gather all of them to celebrate
While we slip out quietly

And have a hometown honeymoon Wildflowers and love is in bloom We'll have a hometown honeymoon Just me and you

Hometown honeymoon
Out of church and up to your room
We'll have a hoedown afternoon
Dancing to the rhythm of love

We can sing and laugh out loud Lifestyles of the poor but proud Cuddle up on the porch and enjoy the view We can't afford Niagara Falls But there's a fountain by the old town hall We'll make a wish by the light of a lover's moon

I'll get my grandma's wedding ring And my brother's Chevrolet We can stay at your mama's house We don't have to go away

To have a hometown honeymoon Wildflowers and love is in bloom We'll have a hometown honeymoon Dancing to the rhythm of love

You're daddy's prized possession I'll make a good impression I'm gonna get his blessing That's all we need

Hometown honeymoon Wildflowers and love is in bloom We'll have a hometown honeymoon Just me and you

Hometown honeymoon
Out of church and up to your room
We'll have a hoedown afternoon
Dancing to the rhythm of love
