

Mind Of A Woman

Alain Clark

She can make your darkest days turn bright
But just as easy she'll turn off the light
On a perfect day she's so sweet
But one wrong word she is on her feet
There is just no way to tell

The mind of a woman
It's got mysterious ways
The mind of a woman
Leaves you think you're flying
While you're flat on your face

On about how she's through with her friend
But then the very next day you'll see them walking hand in hand
She will go her way, pull you along
One wrong turn and all reason is gone
Changing all her worked out plans
I will never understand

The mind of a woman
It's got mysterious ways
The mind of a woman
Loves you for a minute
And you're happy for days

It's of a different world
Of a higher design
Don't you fool yourself
Cause you can't read the mind

The mind of a woman
