Angels and Alcohol

Alan Jackson

You can't mix angels and alcohol I don't think God meant for them to get along When it takes control, you can't love no one at all You can't mix angels and alcohol

You can't blend whiskey with a good woman's love They don't go together, love's already hard enough You think you can handle, how it feels or what it does You can't blend whiskey with a good woman's love

You can't change lonely with a bottle of wine It might ease the heartache for one short easy time In the end you have to face what's hiding in your mind You can't change lonely with a bottle of wine

You can't mix angels and alcohol An angel once loved me, I traded it all I let the bottle drive my life into a wall You can't mix angels, and alcohol
