Good Imitation of the Blues

Alan Jackson

You called it quits
And hung up the phone
Now go love
The one you choose

And my friends say I should be happy But if I'm happy
This is a good imitation of the blues

You threatened to leave One too many times I'm gettin' out My travelin' shoes

And now that you're gone
I'm gonna be walkin' on
With this good imitation of the blues

My friends all say You're no good without me They tell me That's good for you

And they say that I'm just feelin' fine With this good imitation of the blues

You threatened to leave One too many times I'm gettin' out My travelin' shoes

And now that you're gone
I'm gonna be walkin' on
With this good imitation of the blues
