

Laid Back 'n Low Key (Cay)

Alan Jackson

Laid back an low key
You an me on that white powdered beach
Side by side with the sand and the sea
Laid Back 'an Low Key

Gentle roar of a wave on the shore
Makes it way through the crack neath the door
Wake up call from the ocean floor
Down in Abaco

Tequila sunrise in a coconut vase
Hammock swinging in the palm tree shade
Standard island beach resort cliché
Hey but that's ok

Wind blowing on the back of my neck
Sun reflecting off that tan on your breasts
Found that feeling that we lost long ago
Down in Abaco
