

That's What I'd Be Like Without You

Alan Jackson

When was the last time I told you,
just how much that you mean to me?
I'm sorry I took you for granted,
but without you I know how I'd be...

Imagine a day without sunshine
or a mountain not having a view.
And picture the Heavens not holding the stars.
That's what I'd be like without you.

It scares me to think I could lose you by leaving you here all alone,
but if you ever fall out of love here,
I know how I'd be on my own...

Imagine a day without sunshine
or a mountain not having a view.
And picture the Heavens not holding the stars.
That's what I'd be like without you.

That's what I'd be like without you.
