to the other side

I found the poison under my skin
Creeping in slowly feeding everything
I feel so close yet so far away
Staring at life this prison of sheltering
It's killing me...

I-I-I wanna break free from these walls
And say goodbye-ay-ay to the feelings that I've known before
I try-ay-ay to fight back the urge to hideaway and let it, let it, let it open my eyes

The glass is breaking, I'm not afraid
The noise it's making is taking my breath away
This water is cold but I'm not alone
And something's moving underneath my feet
It's sinking me...

I-I-I wanna break free from these walls
And say goodbye-ay-ay to the feelings that I've known before
I try-ay-ay to fight back the urge to hideaway and let it, let it, let it open my eyes
to the other side

Ooo-oo Floating away on a star Passing through clouds and rose colors Oh...starting over I'm never coming down

I...I...I...

It's killing me, just set me free
Set me free!

 $\ensuremath{\text{I-I-I}}$  wanna break free from these walls And say goodbye-ay-ay to the feelings that  $\ensuremath{\text{I've}}$  known before

I try-ay-ay to fight back the urge to hideaway and let it, let it, let it open inside

I-I-I wanna break free from these walls

And say goodbye-ay-ay to the feelings that I've known before

I try-ay-ay to fight back the urge to hideaway

I try-ay-ay to fight back the urge to hideaway and let it, let it, let it open my eyes to the other side

Ooo, oooo, oh oh oh Mm oo mm oo
