Plastic

Alanis Morissette

You got a plastic name and a plastic heart You can play the game or you'll never start I'm talkin' to you You got a plastic house and a plastic fence Gotta look around or you'll lose your friends Am I gettin' through?

You got a plastic girl in a plastic bed And she's in your house made of gingerbread And you're in there too Got a plastic smile on a plastic face But it's underneath that you can't erase But what can you do-do-do?

Say Love-it's not that hard after all (tell me what I want, what I wanna hear) When everybody does Say Love-it's gonna tear down the walls (tell me what I want, what I wanna hear) if everybody loves

You live in a plastic dream through a plastic card But reality you don't disregard You know that it's true You got a plastic goal in a plastic life Gotta search your soul gotta make it right And here's what you do-do-do

Say Love-it's not that hard after all (tell me what I want, what I wanna hear) When everybody does Say Love-it's gonna tear down the walls (tell me what I want, what I wanna hear) if everybody loves

Wake up in the morin' Some are not sleepin' tight A matter you've been ignorin' Why can't you just say it? Will not wait forever Can't you see I'm right I want you to endeavor To tell me again and again!

Say Love-it's not that hard after all (tell me what I want, what I wanna hear) When everybody does Say Love-it's gonna tear down the walls (tell me what I want, what I wanna hear) if everybody loves
