

Blue Monday Hangover

Albert Collins

Well, the first thing Monday mornin', I drink black coffee, to clear my head

Yes, every Monday mornin', I drink black coffee, an a-
clear my head

Because, ev'ry Sunday night without you, baby, it's Blue Monday
, you know baby, you know my soul is dead

Big Boss Man, I can hear you call my name, yes, Big Boss Man, B ig Boss Man

Oh, I can hear you call my name

You know, I just don't feel like it this mornin', baby, it's a sin, you know ain't it a sin?

Hey!

I can hear Blue Monday callin', but this old hangover, just won
't let me go

Yes, I can hear Blue Monday callin', but this old hangover, jus t won't let me go

Yes, but ev'ry time I try to get up, baby, I feel like I'm just goin' down slow
