

Call An Ambulance

Albert Hammond, Jr.

Once I was told
That a boy caught a cold
And he left to go home to get some sleep instead

His baby stayed where she was
I go talk to her 'cause
I wanna sleep with her

And you will only hold me
If I will never tell you it would end
And you will never have me
Cause you were only wanting to be friends
And you will always hold out till he gave out

Now that his back
I'm afraid that you go back to his bed
Where I know he try to keep you

Well I'm well aware of what she does
She won't leave me because I sleep with her

And you will only hold me
If I will never tell you it would end
And you will never have me
Cause you were only wanting to be friends
And you will always hold out till he gave out
