Down By The River

Albert Hammond

City life was gettin' us down
So we spent the weekend out of town
Pitched the tent on the patch of ground
Down by the river.

Lit a fire and drank some wine You put your jeans on the top of mine Said, come in the water's fine Down by the river.

Down by the river Down by the river Said, come in the water's fine Down by the river

Didn't feel too good all night So we took a walk in the morning light Came across the strangest sight Down by the river.

Silver fish lay on its side

It was washed up by the early tide

I wonder how it died

Down by the river.

Down by the river Down by the river Silver fish lay on its side Down by the river

Doctor put us both to bed He dosed us up and he shook his head Only foolish people go, he said Down by the river.

Why do willows weep, said he Because they're dying gradually From the waste, from the factories Down by the river.

Down by the river
Down by the river
Why do willows weep, said he
Down by the river

In time, the river banks will die The reeds will wilt and the ducks won't fly There'll be a tear in the otter's eye Down by the river.

The banks will soon be black and dead And where the otter raised his head Will be a clean white stone instead Down by the river

Down by the river Down by the river

Will be a clean white stone instead $\ensuremath{\mathsf{Down}}$ by the river
