

Diversity

Alborosie

This is for my people -
Oh, my Jah Jah people.
The conquering Lion, shall come.

I don't want to live in the past,
So I'm looking for a brighter day.
My homeland is right there behind the horizon,
God Almighty watch me same way.
Someone is judging my spirituality,
Laughing of my meditation.
Don't be afraid of diversity,
There is no conffliction.
Blessed shall be the one,
Who live in love, respect and dedication.
Blessed shall be the one, who live in love.

Love you, King Selassie,
Promise you I'll keep your crown.
Love you King Selassie,
No man will bring me down.

Love you, King Selassie,
Promise you I'll keep your crown.
Love you King Selassie,
No man will bring me down.

Live in love and life shall bloom,
God is waiting there.
Don't be scared where you're going,
'Cause you don't live nowhere.
Simple people simple life,
We don't speak perfection.
For many years we've been living in,
One life of illusion.
