Still blazin', still blazin', still blazing',
'Cause Jah Jah power it's so amazin'.
Give I di strength and protection,
Keep praising, each and every day.

Still blazin', still blazin', still blazing',
'Cause Jah Jah power it's so amazin'.
Give I di strength and protection,
Keep praising, whoo, yeh, yeh, yeh.

More time mi seh nothing nuh a gwaan,
And what mi get is not what mi waan.
This journey's ruff, but show must go on,
As so the thing set, wo mi tell yu seh.
More time the sun down shine for me,
And the only thing bright my dignity.
Right place to stand beside the Almighty,
As so mi live mi life, wo mi tell yu seh.
Don't let di likkle tribulation skip you down.
Don't let di night stop your sound.
Don't let nobody tell you what is good for you.
'Cause you alone know your truth, well then.
Don't let nobody rule your soul, no way.
Just be yourself each and every day.
Live and let live, well, and always remember say..
